

December 2008

BUSINESS OF THE YEAR ACCOLADE FOR KNIGHTS OF OLD

Distribution and Logistics company, Knights of Old Ltd has won the Business of the Year in the Northamptonshire Business Excellence Awards 2008. The awards which are organised by the Northants Evening Telegraph recognise the success and achievements of businesses throughout the county.

Having previously been a runner up in this category Knights of Old is proud to have been recognised as a leading business within the midlands. Paul Abbott, Operations Director, Knights of Old said: "We are delighted to have won this award and that everyone's hard work, commitment and innovation has been acknowledged with this accolade." With a higher standard of entries and over 300 business men and women from the county attending the ceremony, the competition was strong.

Abbott continued: "I would like to thank all of our staff, clients and associates for their fantastic support they have given and continue to give the company. This award means a lot to the company as it demonstrates that we are able to deliver what we set out to achieve for our clients and our own business in return."

Knights Of Old is so pleased to add this recent award to the company's portfolio of recognised achievements in the industry which include the UK's Haulier of the Year in 2006 and Woman of the Year for Anita Emerson, Knights of Old Warehouse Operations Manager in the summer of 2008. Both industry and local business accolades are of great importance to the company and its success.

-ENDS-