KNIGHTS OF OLD LAUNCH NEW EUROPEAN SERVICE

Northamptonshire-based distribution and logistics company, Knights of Old Ltd has recently launched its new Daily Express European Service. The company has transported goods to mainland Europe for many years but new partnerships with European distribution companies has enabled Knights of Old to offer express transit times.

Ian Beattie, Managing Director, Knights of Old said: “With strategically located partners Knights of Old is able to offer not only competitive rates to new and existing clients but the network which we have created enables the company to depart daily from Kettering resulting in quicker transit times.”

Partnerships have been formed with companies such as: TSA of France, Vorex of Holland and M&F Spedition of Germany. In addition to these countries, Knights of Old is able to offer services to Greece, Italy, Belgium and Spain. These strong partnerships enable all companies and their clients to benefit through cost and efficiencies.

The new Daily Express European Service Knights of Old can offer, adds another facility to its profile. Along with domestic distribution, warehousing, bespoke packing and case making, and Sea and Air Freight, the European service allows Knights of Old to offer a complete distribution solution.

Beattie continued: “Building strong relationships throughout the UK has led to great successes for Knights of Old. We hope that our ability to form partnerships and the knowledge and experience gained through the development of our accomplished UK and Irish services will provide us with a foundation to create a successful European Service.”
